Project Narrative

This group of knitters, crocheters, sewers and stuffers held working meetings through out the year. Abdominal pillows for the surgical center at AdventHealth as well as chemo caps and blankets at the AdventHealth cancer center provided patients with some comfort. Families of the Women, Infant and Children's (WIC) program received blankets, stuffed bears, hats and booties. Family Life Center staff were grateful to receive amenity bags and the washcloths for their clients. The ladies at the end of spring and through the summer worked to make bandanas for the pooches and their owners who participated in Advent Health's Pink Army Event in October. Bunnell's kindergarten teacher, Jane Zilokowski, received origami bags of books for her 20 students. The Material Girls collaborated with Patsy Campbell on the Education/Libraries

Project Narrative

Many activities were proposed and sub committees were formed. This group were involved in many projects, outing, movies, etc related to Arts and Culture focus. Examples - Movies – Elvis & Loving Vincent. Attended Painting & Pottery classes, creating wreaths for the Festival of Wreaths to benefit the Flagler Humane Society. We created an Arts and Culture book club , reading , meeting and discussing implications as they relate to our Arts and Culture focus. We also visited the Casements in Ormond Beach (home of John D Rockefeller) and The Van Gogh Immersive event. The group also doated funds for basket for out Day of Games. A Sunday Newsletter was created to share not only reminders of up coming events, but also to share information encouraging, teaching and stimulating a love of the Arts and realize the close bond
