Happy New Year!

Last year was a very productive year for the Material Girls. We continued to send handmade items to the AdventHealth Palm Coast hospital, the "Christmas Come True" foundation, the Family Life Center and the local (WIC) Women, Infants and Children Department of Health. We donated a total of 270 dog/human bandanas to the AdventHealth Pink on Parade 5K fund raising initiative that benefits both the cancer and hospice departments of the hospital.

Tie pillows were added to our list of items made for AdventHealth hospital. These tie pillows requested by the hospital are given to breast cancer patients.

As the new year begins we will continue providing what has become the group's "standard" donated items, but we will focus on making a few Camp Boggy Creek Bears and crocheted/knitted blankets for camp attendees in central Florida. Boggy Bears and handmade blankets are gifted to all children when they leave Camp Boggy Creek. Started in 1996 by Paul Newman and General Norman Schwarzkopf Camp Boggy Creek provides a camp experience for sick children and their families. For our next meeting feel free to bring blankets in-progress to work on. Tie pillows will also be ready for stuffing at the January meeting.

CAMP BOGGY CREEK BLANKET SIZE REQUIREMENTS:

Blankets can be crocheted or knitted.

35-40 inches wide

40-50 inches long

THIS SATURDAY - Jan. 14th
Pick-up/Drop off Day , 9 a.m. - 11 a.m (15
Sand Pine Drive)

Do you have completed projects ready to be dropped off? Plan on dropping them off this coming Saturday morning. This is a great opportunity to pick-up crochet/knitting kits for the Camp Boggy Creek blankets. If you already have a favorite blanket pattern feel free to just pick-up some yarn. Patterns will also be available for those who already have yarn at home. Mending and stockings that need to be quilted and finished for next year are also ready for pick-up.

No worries if you don't have anything to drop-off or don't need to pick-up any yarn just come by to say hello and have a warm drink!

GOT YARN?

Hope to see everyone Saturday!
